Boise Man Is Speaker At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Boyd Daniels, Boise, state membership chairman, addressed a four-county Farm Bureau membership dinner meeting at the Manhattan Cafe Tuesday evening.

Daniels compared foreign countries with the United States and noted changes in the farming industry. He stated almost everyone belongs to some kind of organization. In pointing out the type of organization that now exists in California among some farmers, he said this may lead to violence and cited a personal experience in Iowa a few years ago.

He emphasized the importance of farmers being organized, however, and their soliciting assistance from others as a help to solve current farm problems. Chairs were used to illustrate a program to be carried out during the next two months in the state of Idaho Farm Bureau membership drive.

Couples present were given their 1957 quotas and chairmen were reminded if they met these quotas by the time of the state convention Nov. 14-17 at which they would be given a station hat.

The American Farm Bureau convention will be held Dec. 4-8 in Las Vegas, Nev.

Churches Plan Special Event Sunday

BUHL — Sixty years of Christian education in Buhl will be observed Sunday with a special program planned by churches of the community.

An invitation is extended to all people of the area to attend the event which will be held at the Buhl elementary school.

Pictures, song books, Bibles, scrapbooks, and other items of historical interest will be on display at 9:30 a.m. — a committee composed of Mrs. Elva Mason, Mrs. Ruth Shields and W. L. Kyles has been working several months to accumulate interesting data and material which tell the story of Christian education over the years.

The Union-Sunday school program will begin at 9:45 a.m. There will be singing of oldtime songs and an interchurch choir under the direction of Mrs. Dean McKelwell will sing such well-known hymns.

Mrs. Blanche Smith will serve as organist.

The younger children will be dismissed following the opening service and will be having a movie — "Nash and the UARK" — movie — young people and adults will remain for a lesson led by Rev. Paul LaRue, pastor of the local church of the Nazarene.

The program will end in time for people to return to their own congregations for the morning worship hour at 11 a.m.

At 1 p.m. a potluck picnic will be held in the basement pavilion. There will be singing and beverage to be provided. The program will include the introduction of "old times" with an informal period of entertainment.

"Early days" Games and activities are also planned for the children under the direction of the high school year group.

The program is being arranged under the direction of Rev. Paul LaRue assisted by committees composed of members from the participating churches including the First Christian, Church of the Nazarene, First Presbyterian, First Baptist and First Methodist.

Each church is also sending invitations to many former Buhl residents and interested persons to attend the event.

STANDING UNDER the paw of a nine-foot polar bear is Edward F. Pedersen Jr., 614 Cindy Drive. He hugged the 500-pound bear in April while hunting in the Arctic with his father, Edward E. Pedersen Sr., Salt Lake City. Pedersen stalked the bear for about eight miles before killing it with a shot through the lungs. The bear was sent back to Pedersen from Denver taxidermists this week. T.F. Big Game Hunter Adds Polar Bear to Trophies

Another trophy has been added to the collection of Edward F. Pedersen Jr., 614 Cindy Drive, world-wide hunter of trophy game animals.

This time the trophy is a nine-foot polar bear shot by Pedersen in April in the Arctic. After the bear was shot, Pedersen sent the animal to Jones Brothers, Denver taxidermists, to be mounted for exhibition in his collection of game animals.

This week the bear, ready to be added to the collection was sent back to Pedersen. Presently the bear is in Pedersen's home, but later will probably be on display in his store, State Hardware, 219 Main Ave. E., along with his other trophies, including a large Kodiak bear.

Pedersen shot the bear on a hunt with his father, Edward E. Pedersen Sr., Salt Lake City, and another Utah.

Because of the remoteness of the Arctic, where the polar bear is hunted, planes are used. Pedersen said three airplanes were used in his hunt.

When stalking a bear, great care is needed because of thin ice conditions throughout the area, Pedersen said. If a man is caught through the ice, he would be frozen before he could be pulled out of the 45 below zero degree water.

Pedersen said while stalking the bear he covered about eight miles. The bear at one time broke through some ice. At this time Pedersen thought the bear would swim off under the ice and come up out of sight.

However, the bear came right back up and scraped through the ice until he reached solid ice that would support him. Pedersen said the bear knew he was being hunted. Pedersen said the bear would swim off and look back at the hunters, and put his paw over his black nose so he would blend in with the snow.

Pedersen said he shot the bear with a .300 caliber Weatherby using a 180 grain bullet at about 280 yards. The bear was shot through the lungs.

Presently Pedersen is on another hunt, but this time closer to home — in the Selway area hunting elk.

Rule Forbids Manipulation Of Stockpiles

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A resolution condemning alleged manipulation of federal mineral and stockpiles to prevent price increases was passed Wednesday by the American Mining Congress.

The resolution says there have been "official denials that stockpiles are being used to control aspects of the economy," but declares "the timing and magnitude of some stockpile sales obviously indicate a deliberate increase commodity prices or to increase government revenues."

The resolution apparently referred to the "governmental release of stockpiled copper and aluminum when price increases were announced late last year. But while the resolution endorses release during "unusual economic activity," it says they should hinge on consultations with the mining industry and congressional approval.

SKI-Mobile Event Set At Ketchum

KETCHUM.—Ketchum's first ski-mobile carnival will be held Jan. 14-15, 1967. It was decided at a meeting of the Ketchum-Sun Valley Chamber of Commerce meeting Wednesday noon at the Sawtooth Club.

The date was decided upon after hearing Max Peck and Bud Esterholdt report on a meeting of the Western States Ski-Mobile Association at West Yellowstone.

After hearing Tim Brennan speak on the Idaho inventory tax, chamber members went on record as favoring the removal of the tax.

French Gold Buying Keeps Supply Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of the Treasury says French purchases of U.S. gold have kept the United States from substantially increasing its gold supply in the first half of 1966.

A department spokesman said Wednesday the French purchases reached their highest level in more than a year during the second quarter of this year.

The total U.S. gold loss during the first half of 1966 was about $277 million, the spokesman said. The French purchase was $232.5 million, the highest since its $482-million purchase in the first quarter of 1965.

The Treasury said gold sales to France jumped to $207 million during the April-June quarter compared with the overall U.S. gold loss of $208.6 million. French policy is to convert at least $45 million of dollar reserves into gold monthly.

Klan Leader Will Appeal Conviction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ku Klux Klan leader Robert M. Shelton says he will appeal his contempt-of-Congress conviction to the Supreme Court if necessary.

"I'll take it to the top," he declared Wednesday after a U.S. District Court jury which deliberated about an hour found him guilty of contempt in connection with his refusal to provide Klan records to the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Judge John J. Sirica deferred sentencing pending an investigation by the court's probation officer of Shelton's activities. He would be one year in prison or a $1,000 fine. Shelton remains free on $500 bond.

Shelton's attorney, Lester V. Chalmers Jr. of Raleigh, N.C., said he would appeal soon to the U.S. District Court of Appeals.

Shelton, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., refused Oct. 20 to furnish the House committee with records of United Klans of America, biggest Klan group in the country. He is the group's imperial wizard.

Six other Klan leaders indicted on similar charges face trial Oct. 3. Shelton was considered the test case. The seven had been subpoenaed to testify and furnish records in the committee's investigation of the Klan.

3 Men Left In Coal Mine For Dead

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Efforts to rescue three missing miners were abandoned early today and the burning coal mine was sealed in efforts to halt the fire in which they died.

Entrances to the mine were ordered sealed after rescue of the miners was called "hopeless." And they were officially pronounced dead by the Bureau of Mines.

The end of round-the-clock efforts by about 80 would-be rescuers came about 7 a.m. after attempts to put out the fire with a foam-making machine failed.

Large auger machines had drilled into the area where the three were believed lost, but this also failed.

At least twice, the drill apparently dropped below the vein, striking solid rock.

Given up for dead in the Morgan Mining Co. works, 14 miles southwest of here, near Bellsville, were Tom Terrell, 41, of Wheeling, W. Va.; William Adams, 33, of near Harrisonville, Belmont County; and Keith Spicer, 22, of Dillonville, Jefferson County.

They were lost in a fire touched off Wednesday morning by a snapped power cable.

In another coal mine accident, near Pottsville, Pa., a search team brought out early today the bodies of three men killed by a cave-in.

The men died Wednesday when the roof of a pit operated by the Lengel Coal Co. gave way and buried them under tons of coal and rock.

The victims were Russell Dierker, 40, John Hutchinson, 39, and Stanley Grayish, 51.

Communist China Leaders Call on Red Guards to End Violent Drive

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China's leaders today told the Red Guards to end their revolutionary drive which has brought havoc to the country and criticism from abroad.

The instructions, in an editorial in the official Peking People's Daily, apparently were the climax to a slow effort to bring the youthful guards under control after they got out of hand.

The move reflected concern that the Red Guard activities might be disrupting agricultural and industrial production. There also were indications that Communist officials decided on the full crackdown because of their reaction to the guards and because of difficult natural conditions, including drought, at home.

The editorial warned that "under no circumstances must you allow the Red Guards to turn their revolutionary zeal into lawlessness." It added that workers and farmers "are magnificently carrying out revolutionary activities of their own."

The New China News Agency today reported peasants had started harvesting their crops and hinted that Peking might also be worried about natural calamities.

The report said peasants were working with revolutionary determination to fight against drought and other natural troubles that have occurred in some areas.

Japanese correspondents reported from Peking that workers and farmers are scheduled to hold a mass rally to the Communist Chinese capital.

They said Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung and Defense Minister Lin Biao are scheduled to speak to the meeting.

After the Red Guards first erupted on the Chinese scene in August, they were given repeated official warnings to move with caution and without force.

Despite these warnings, they continued to be reports of clashes between Red Guards and groups of workers and farmers. The editorial said the revolutionary students and youths of Peking.

Presidential System Favored For New Viet Nam Regime

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials tend to favor a presidential system for South Viet Nam's new government—but Washington is going to keep hands off the making of this constitution.

This post-election account was given to newsmen after the White House issued Wednesday a 44-page report on what President Johnson termed "the other war"—the nonmilitary campaign to build South Viet Nam as a nation.

Johnson hailed the big turnout in Sunday's Vietnamese elections as "a vote of confidence" and said the results show the people "approve of what we are doing here."

Both Johnson and his top aide in charge of the civilian program for Viet Nam, Robert Komer, said "the other war" is not being won yet but progress is being made.

Komer cited moves against South Viet Nam's inflation as the top nonmilitary accomplishment this year. He also reported 12,000 Communists defected in January-August of this year, more than in all of 1965.

Administration strategists figure the one nation-building accomplishment, in addition to military defeat of the Reds, which could outweigh all other gains, is the election of a elected constitutional government in Saigon supported throughout the land.

Viet Nam used to be a French colony. After the Indochina War ended in 1954, Ngo Dinh Diem ruled the newly independent South with growing despotism. Since Diem's overthrow in 1963, in the opinion of U.S. officials, none of the successor regimes has governed with broad-based support across the country.

The U.S. officials said American experts are inclined toward a presidential system, a popularly elected chief executive, along with an elected legislature—as better than a constitutional monarchy.

The presidential system is regarded here as more likely to produce a strong and continuous executive leadership, believed needed for South Viet Nam. Parliamentary systems in many countries have a history of government instability amid the jockeying of political parties.

New Trustee Is Appointed At Richfield

RICHFIELD — Richfield Village board members appointed a new trustee at the September meeting. It was reported Thursday.

John Lemmon was appointed and sworn in as a trustee after the board was advised that Robinson was unavailable to serve the unexpired term of Edwin Johnson, who moved to Hailey. Robinson had been appointed at the August meeting. Lemmon also will serve as irrigation water commissioner.

The Richfield highway district was reimbursed $2,323.82 for street-cleaning, improvement, and maintenance during the year.

Bids will be requested for 336 feet of 12-inch pipe, four heat gates, and four nine-pipe structures.

The trustees agreed it would be impossible to carry out sidewalk improvements this year because of the large amount of street expenditures.

Man Jailed After Spree Of Shooting

SEATTLE (AP) — Theodore Bauder, 31, Seattle, was jailed early Thursday on charges stemming from a half-hour shooting spree in an apartment here. No one was hurt.

Police said Bauder fired about 100 shots from a 22-caliber rifle, breaking windows and lights. Officers said he fired from windows of his apartment as officers watched without firing for fear their shots might hit Bauder's two young sons in the apartment with their father. She returned, thinking he had calmed down, but she told police he grabbed her around the throat, went after the rifle and started shooting.

A policeman disarmed Bauder when he emerged from the apartment.

Utahns Ask Examination Of Vote Law

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Two public officials have asked for re-examination of Utah's new primary voting law because of the light turnout in Tuesday's balloting.

Gov. Calvin L. Rampton and Salt Lake County Commissioner John Freston Creeer both expressed dissatisfaction with the law Wednesday.

Rampton wrote to the State Legislative Council asking it to study the law and prepare recommendations for the 1967 Legislature.

"The major factor contributing to the small turnout appears... to have been voter confusion against the registration by party requirement effective this year for the first time," Rampton said.

The law was passed by the 1965 Legislature.

Less than 25 per cent, or 110,000, of Utah's estimated 450,000 registered voters cast ballots in the primary, he said.

Creeer, who won the Democratic nomination for the county commission in Tuesday's primary, said he will ask the next state legislature also to re-examine the law.

Such a law, he said, "appears to abridge the constitutional right of privacy which Utahns have enjoyed in the past."

Chevrolet Trucks Have Cab Changes

Highlighting the Chevrolet truck line for 1967 is a cab and sheet metal styling change featuring clean, angular lines with a functional character.

Other new features are addition of longer, larger capacity, and wider interior space. The fourth-ton rating to the Chevy Van and Sportvan series, diesel models in the three-fourth and one-ton city-delivery, Step-Van and forward control chassis line; completely redesigned low-silhouette four-wheel drive series; V-8 power for Chevy Vans; expansion of the model line to 406 models on 37 wheelbases; and a Custom Sport Truck option for light-duty conventional cab models, including such heavy items as full carpeting and bucket seats.

Visibility is improved by the larger windshield and door glass, narrower corner pillars and shorter sloping hood. The angle of vision is improved so that the driver can see the road up to five and one-half feet closer than with previous conventional cab models.

Smooth-surfaced, undercoated, full fender skirts provide improved protection against corrosion. Nominal use of coach joints and liberal use of spot weld sealers also offer additional corrosion resistance.

All-steel, Fleetline pickup truck exterior side panels are one piece with wrap-around ends to virtually eliminate coach joints. The 1967 pickup truck with eight-foot body has only one foot of coach joints in the box and front sheet metal, compared with 37 feet in the 1966 model.

Three further additions to the 1967 Chevrolet truck line are the 108-inch wheelbase models in the Chevy Van and Sportvan series with bodies 18 inches longer than the current 90-inch wheelbase models, which are continued; 12 models with V-8 power in the Chevy Van and Sportvan, with a 283-cubic-inch engine which develops 175 horsepower; and an economical 82-horsepower, 160-cubic-inch diesel engine in three-fourth and one-ton Step-Van and forward control chassis models.

Fifteen safety-related product improvements will be added to the 1967 Chevrolet truck line as standard equipment.

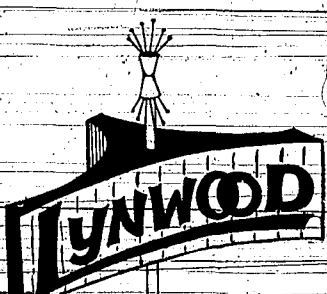

The line-up of protective devices includes dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, four-way hazard warning flasher, energy absorbing steering wheel of deep-center design, telescoping lower steering shaft, energy absorbing instrument panel with smooth contoured knobs and levers and padded instrument panel.

Padded sun visors, folding front seat latch, inside day-night mirror with shatter-resistant vinyl-edged glass, thicker laminate windshield glass, interior-type cab floor with down mounting, lane change feature incorporated in directional signal control, positive interior push button door locks, class A turn signals, which meet I.C.G.C. requirements for lens area and luminosity, and anti low profile window control knobs.

Idaho Man Dies Of Crash Hurts

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—A 39-year-old man was injured in a two-truck collision near Spaulding, Idaho, July 28 which claimed the life of his wife, died Tuesday at a hospital here.

A pickup truck driven by R. L. Riddle, 39, of Puffin Truck Lines, a truck driven by Gary M. Douthett of Emble, Idaho, at the intersection of U. S. Highway 12 and State Highway 42, Riddle had lived in the 71K City, Idaho area for many years before moving to a home in Idaho farm a few months before the accident.

Traffic Toll in Rural Areas Tops City Totals

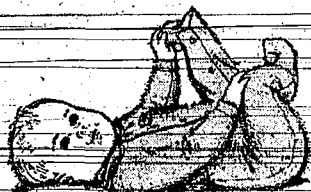

BOISE — Traffic toll in rural areas of Idaho during the first half of 1966 was worse than it was in cities, a report by Howard Tankersley, rural-civil-defense leader of the University of Idaho, extension service, showed. There were 456 accidents resulting in 97 deaths and injury to 2492. In cities there were 573 accidents that killed 16 and injured 197.

Tankersley, who is also secretary of the Idaho Farm Safety Committee, based the report on figures by the state bureau of vital statistics in the department of public health.

Sixty-four percent of all accidents happened in daylight and 70 percent were on dry roads. Seventy-two percent of the drivers were men. The accidents occurred during approximately 1.92 billion vehicle miles of traffic in six months. The strike.

War Changes Entirely as Nighttime Comes to Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam are accessible by night to the (AP)—Night falls on Viet Nam and the whole war changes. The vast military machinery of the United States slips into a different gear.

Thousands of troops that moved aggressively through the jungles in daylight curl into defensive circles at dusk.

Swarms of helicopters that swirled over paddies and valleys sit idle on airstrips.

Night warriors go into action. Small patrol squads, faces blackened, poise in the dark.

Idaho Teacher Turnover Told

BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Education Association made public Wednesday a report on teacher turnover prepared by the College of Education at Idaho State University.

It showed a turnover rate of 10.5 per cent between the 1954-55 and 1955-56 school years, compared with an average of 17 per cent in the preceding five years.

"This reduction in teacher mobility," the report said, "was apparently due to Idaho teachers receiving an average salary increase of 3.5 per cent by increased state appropriations to public education."

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, September 15 — Born today, you often seem vague and of an unformed opinion, but when it comes right down to it, what seems is not so. What is — for you are one who knows precisely what he wants out of life and is often precise in his plans as to how to get it. It is not from vagueness that you may be in danger of not achieving your aims; rather it is from procrastination. You are inclined to put-off until tomorrow what should be done today!

FOR a person such as you, a person with definite plans, feasible ideas, and goals that fall in line with your capacities and talents, the primary achievement must be a working schedule to which you adhere faithfully. You must learn to work whether you feel like it or not; you must learn to socialize at times that do not interfere with the advancement of your career; you must, in short, learn self-discipline and control.

Although you are highly intelligent, you are also easily swayed by others, and you will have to guard against being tracked down by what you know you should be doing. Your hearty response to others gains you many friends, but it may also prove a major setback to you on other than social levels. Put a damper on your yen for fellowship.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday card tell you today!

Friday, September 16 —

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — A potentially great day for Virgo. All you have to do is bring your highest talents and your most tactful manner to bear.

somely today. Share in the rewards.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Highly significant day, insurance to it, what seems is not so. Don't take seemingly small things in a small way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) — A day of adventure for Sagittarius with a bit of derring-do in his nature. This could be a day to remember.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20) — Don't trust business matters to the outsider. See to prospects and clients yourself if you would have the job well done.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — That touch of incurable optimism that others are prone to, might or may well prove of the utmost benefit today. He who laughs last.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — Best to crying the way you intend to take by way of lending a listening ear to the experienced. Don't begin the journey

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — See that you have all pertinent information at your fingertips before you counter with another about present problems. Don't be caught short.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Fight or flee well prove of the wrong time could spoil your chance for success today. Listen well to what others advise you to do.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Past experience should stand you in good stead today as you begin a new phase of your work. Keep success from going to your head!

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — The hand of fate and destiny, though long in coming, should begin to appear now. Give others heart by telling of your recovery.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — A confusing morning may well develop into a brilliant afternoon. There's work to be done — and you can do it!

American Housewives Are Fighting High Food Prices

NEW YORK (AP) — While Washington keeps an eye on farmers and the November elections, housewives across the country are rising up over food prices. Some even are "baking their own bread."

In Phoenix, Ariz., retail grocers report a drop in bread sales since a group of women organized and pledged to do their own baking until the price of bread comes down.

Another group is forming in Huntington, W. Va., where Mrs. Jerry McDonald was inundated with telephone calls after she was quoted in a newspaper story about rising food prices. "The situation has reached a point where it is cheaper to eat roast beef than eggs or porkies — the poor man's fish."

Roast beef is 69 cents a pound this week at a major supermarket chain in the New York area. Large white eggs are 71 cents a dozen and porkies $1.15 a pound.

Eggs took another jump this week. Butter also is up again — in some areas to the highest prices since 1960.

Beef prices are up on the West Coast. Loin is up 3 cents a pound in the Pacific Coast area and chuck is up 2 cents in Los Angeles.

In pork, Boston butts and spare ribs are sharply lower on the West Coast. They also are featured in the Midwest. Smoked hams are on the specials list for the Northeast.

Chicken and turkey are featured in many areas. The first pumpkins are moving to market — a sure sign of fall and the shift from summer to the harvest season.

Early apples are being harvested in New York and Pennsylvania.

Britain Will Demand End To Rebellion

LONDON (AP) — Britain announced Wednesday night it will call on Rhodesia to end its rebellion and warned that, should it fail, it will ask for drastic U.N. sanctions against Prime Minister Ian Smith's all-white regime.

The announcement was made in a communique after nine days of bitter debate in the 21-nation Commonwealth conference on steps to end the 10-month breakaway. The colony's white regime rebellion of 1965 has defied Commonwealth members had failed to reach a united Rhodesia policy. In effect they built on racial lines, which Africans are demanding an end to any semblance of negotiation and proposing invasion to end the rebellion.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson stood firm against these demands and has in effect ordered another round of negotiation backed by a deadline, so far undisclosed.
